

CLASS TEACHER AWARDS

Seren Y Wythnos – Star of the Week

 WILLOW	Thea- for a great week in school. You have joined in with our practice for sports day and were very helpful to the teachers, giving out the equipment to your friends. We are super proud of you! Da iawn Thea!
 ELM	Ellie – for showing greater confidence with your writing and phonics this week. You wrote some lovely sentences about what you could see at the beach and worked more independently. We are so proud of you, Bendigedig Ellie!!
 HAZEL	Ava – for always being so enthusiastic in class. You have been a superstar in phonics lessons and you are becoming a fantastic reader! Da iawn Ava, we are all really proud of you!
 MAPLE	Theo – for showing greater independence with your writing this week. You planned your sentences to tell the story of Superkid well and tried very hard to sound out the words yourself. Bendigedig!
 CHESTNUT	Reyah- For working very hard with your literacy this week. You did a great job with your spelling by using the phonic sounds that you know. Keep up the great work and effort Reyah– I am proud of you! Da iawn.
 PINE	Sophie - Working super hard during COOL time to complete your challenges. You always try your very best and are always so proud of what you have done. Keep up the super work. Da iawn Sophie!
 BIRCH	Stanley – for always putting 100% effort into his maths work. Stanley has shown a super understanding of area and perimeter activities this week. Da iawn ti.
 OAK	Thomas – For really trying hard to show his reasoning and understanding in maths through his clear workings out. Da iawn.
 ROWAN	Lexi -for creating some lovely artwork using Celtic patterns, and for working very carefully on her Celtic thumbpot. She is an excellent artist. Da iawn!
 SYCAMORE	Teilo – for another excellent week of focussed learning and challenging yourself. You have offered many answers when exploring our poetry, angles in Maths and within our new project when investigating the disaster in Pompeii. Da iawn.
 SPRUCE	Theo – for a fantastic week! Your attitude to your learning, eagerness in lessons and your behaviour this week has been excellent. You have shown what a brilliant member of the class you are and you're setting a brilliant example! Keep it up Theo, da iawn!

YEW

Isabelle- for having a lovely, positive attitude towards all of her learning. She always tries her best and is great to have in our class. Well done.

ASH

Hannah – for her hard work during Mathematics lessons, pushing herself to access trickier extension work, providing detailed workings to support her answers.

ACER

Lilly – for working super hard in school to learn her new spelling and reading words. We are so proud of how hard you are trying, well done superstar!
