

CLASS TEACHER AWARDS

Seren Y Wythnos – Star of the Week

 WILLOW	Parker- For always coming into school with a positive attitude. You are kind and polite to the other children in class. You have tried hard this week with writing our new sounds. Keep it up Parker!
 ELM	Ronnie – for having such a positive attitude towards your learning. You are making great progress with both your reading and writing. It was a pleasure to listen to you read this week. Well done, Ronnie, keep up the good work!
 HAZEL	Nellie - for your fantastic effort during maths this week. You worked independently to use the column method to solve the addition and subtractions. Bendegedig Nelli, keep up the great work!
 MAPLE	AJ – being a great role model for the other children in our class. You make good choices and are kind to everyone. You have also worked hard with your challenges and helped some of the younger children too! Bendigedig AJ!
 CHESTNUT	Neo- for being very brave and trying your best with this week's Eisteddfod competitions. I am very proud of how confident you have become and how enthusiastic you are with your school learning. Da iawn!
 PINE	Charlie - Working super hard on your COOL time challenges this week. It has been lovely to see you trying hard to complete them independently. Keep up the brilliant work. Da iawn Charlie!
 BIRCH	Carter – for making a fantastic effort with your research about Roman towns this week. You have found some interesting facts and have presented your work beautifully. Da iawn ti.
 OAK	Insyirah – For a lovely and inspiring singing performance on stage for the Eisteddfod. You were brave to go first. Ardderchog.
 ROWAN	Maisie – for working hard with her partner this week to research the buildings that were in a Roman town and presenting her work neatly. Da iawn!
 SYCAMORE	Noah for giving 100% to every challenge in school, excellent participation during Project lessons about Pompeii and continuing extra challenges at home and independently in school. You have also had a very positive attitude to the National Tests this week. Da iawn Noah.

 SPRUCE	Oscar – For having a great attitude towards your learning this week. You have been focussed and ready to learn each day and as a result you have made an excellent star to your recount in English. I am very proud of the way you have approached your learning this week Oscar, da iawn.
 YEW	Leon - for always trying his best, being friendly, helpful and kind and generally being a lovely member of our class. Well done.
 ASH	Cai – for working hard to create an imaginative, descriptive diary entry as part of our transition project, ‘The Land of Neverbelieve’.
 ACER	Chloe – for making a great start in this school and making lots of new friends. Da iawn Chloe
