

CLASS TEACHER AWARDS

Seren Y Wythnos – Star of the Week

 Willow	Giorgia – For always trying incredibly hard during our phonics sessions. You have been identifying initial sounds independently and you are becoming more confident in using your phonics skills to sound out new words. Bendigedig Giorgia, I am very proud of you!
 Elm	Sienna – for working really hard on your phonics and practising the formation of the sounds beautifully. You take a great pride in your home learning tasks too. Da iawn Sienna!
 Chestnut	Oliver K- For working extremely hard with your maths challenges of more and less this week! You have exceeded expectations and challenged your learning even further. Keep up the fantastic work– I am proud of you!
 Pine	Oliver - Your fantastic writing this week. You thought of some wonderful similes to describe the settings from ‘the Snail and the Whale’. It was a real pleasure to read your work. Da iawn Oliver!
 Maple	Franek – for his perseverance and resilience with his maths work over the past few weeks. Even when he found it tricky, he kept trying and completed his work successfully. It has been lovely to see how proud he has been of himself. Ardderchog!
 Rowan	Carter – for working well in a group to create a fantastic board game set in a Victorian workhouse. You’ve worked brilliantly with new people and between you created a board game that is fun to play.
 Sycamore	Greyson Price for adapting very well to a very different week with changes in routines, mixed classes and group challenges with children he has not worked with before. He has been resilient and used different strategies to have a very positive week. Da iawn, I’m very proud of you.
 Spruce	Kian - for working sensibly in a group to create a fantastic board game set in a Victorian workhouse. You’ve worked brilliantly and between you created a board game that is fun to play.
 Ash	Amber for being very polite, hardworking and being a good role model during her time with me in Dosbarth Sycamore this week. It has been a pleasure to get to know her a little better this week and see what a sensible girl she can be. Da iawn

 Acer	Reuben-Osian for settling into a new school and always giving 100% effort in his learning and his speech. We are very proud of you!
 Poplar	Lara for completing all her learning tasks and her challenges with a lovely smile on her face! Well done Lara.
