

CLASS TEACHER AWARDS

Seren Y Wythnos – Star of the Week

 Willow	Sammy – for being such a fantastic donkey in our Christmas concert. You are following the stage directions perfectly and being an excellent role model for the other donkeys. Keep it up Sammy, we are all super proud of you!
 Elm	Thea - for being such a super Angel in our Christmas concert. You are trying so hard to join in and have come on the stage beautifully with the other angels. I am so proud of you, well done Thea!
 Cherry	Leo- For innovating and writing a brilliant part of the ‘Snail and the Whale’ story. You have worked hard on your handwriting this week, keep it up. I am very proud of you!
 Chestnut	Tyler- For working extremely hard with your maths work this week! You challenged yourself and did not give up when using different strategies for addition. Keep up the fantastic work– we are proud of you!
 Pine	Etta - Writing a fantastic innovated part of the ‘Snail and the Whale’ story. It was lovely to see you using your story map to help you write it independently and the adjectives and similes that you added were brilliant. Da iawn Etta!
 Hazel	Daisy - for working really hard when learning your 2 times tables this week. You are always trying your best and wanting to improve. Da iawn Daisy, I am really proud of you this week, keep it up!
 Maple	Nathan -For his great effort and enthusiasm with all his learning this week. You have listened very well and given your best efforts even when things were tricky.
 Oak	Heidi - Trying your very best. You’ve worked super hard in all your learning and displayed a positive attitude, which has been lovely to see. Keep it going.
 Rowan	Isobel – for her positive attitude towards all areas of learning and for being a positive, happy member of the class who is always ready, respectful and safe. Da iawn!
 Sycamore	Grace – for an excellent attitude towards your learning this week and supporting other children in group challenges. You have been a very good role model to others and produced some very good work in Project and English. Keep it up and be very proud of yourself.

 Spruce	Ronnie – for always trying your best in everything you do. You always give every task your all and as a result you have produced some great work, including some fantastic rhetorical questions in English this week! Da iawn Ronnie, keep up the hard work!
 Ash	Isaac Jones – for taking great care when editing his written work this week. He has listened well and shown a desire to make his writing the best that it can be.
 Acer	Owen W – for making a great effort with his writing this week. He worked really hard to use all of the skills he has learnt to make his writing brilliant. Da iawn!
 Poplar	Jaxon Williams- for always trying his very best with everything we do in school. Well done, Jaxon.
