

CLASS TEACHER AWARDS

Seren Y Wythnos – Star of the Week

 WILLOW	Billy - For coming into school this week with a smile. I am so proud of you Billy. Da iawn!
 ELM	Alex – Working super hard with her phonicis and always trying her best. We are really proud of you! Keep up the brilliant work!
 HAZEL	Edi - For your fantastic independent writing this week. You worked really hard to sound out to write descriptive sentences about the bear. Da iawn Edi, great work!
 MAPLE	Tyler – for writing a brilliant description of the bear for his wanted poster this week. You tried super hard with your spelling, describing words and handwriting.
 CHESTNUT	Leo- For being an excellent role model within our class. You listen well to instructions, always use your polite manners and have tried very hard with your challenges this week. Keep it up– we are proud of you!
 PINE	Working super hard within our maths activities this week. It was lovely to see you working independently to find ‘one more’ and ‘one less’ of a number. Well done Ieuan!
 BIRCH	Frankie – For his super attitude towards his learning this week. Frankie has produced some great independent work in project and group reading.
 OAK	Owen – For always displaying a very positive attitude towards all your learning, and willing to share ideas and information. Keep up the enthusiasm.
 ROWAN	Jack – for having such a positive attitude towards school life and always wanting to do his absolute best in every piece of learning. Da iawn Jack!
 SYCAMORE	Grace - For having an excellent attitude towards all learning this week and giving fantastic answers in our Mantle project lesson linked to Emergency Zoo. You have been a very mature role model for other children. I am very proud of you, keep it up. Bendigedig Grace.
 SPRUCE	Tiarna – For working brilliantly on every task she is given. She has given all her work 100 percent effort over the past weeks. This is within the classroom and with her home learning! Keep up the great work.
 	Ewan - for remembering the “ ei ” spelling rule and using it in his language tasks. Well done, Ewan.

YEW
 ASH	Lily – for her positive approach to learning: Lily tries her hardest in each and every aspect of school life.
 ACER	Coraline – for a positive attitude towards her learning in all areas. You’ve shown real growth, dda iawn.
