

CLASS TEACHER AWARDS

Seren Y Wythnos – Star of the Week

|---|---|
|  WILLOW | Emily - Being such an excellent role model for the other children in class. She always tries her best in everything she does and is a fantastic member of our class. Da iawn! |
|  ELM | Willow K – for always working so hard with your phonics and wordbuilding. Your writing this week was fantastic, and you sounded out all your words independently. Da iawn Willow! |
|  HAZEL | Nellie – for your amazing independent story writing this week. Your work is beautifully presented and you have included all aspects of the success criteria. Bendegedig Nellie! |
|  MAPLE | Matty – for excellent effort with his independent writing this week. I am so proud of you! |
|  CHESTNUT | Alma – for writing a fantastic story independently! You took great pride with your handwriting and remembered to use your story map. Da iawn Alma– we are proud of you! |
|  PINE | Alfie - Your enthusiastic and positive attitude towards your learning. You always put 100% effort into every task that you are given. We are so proud of you Alfie! |
|  BIRCH | Leah – for consistently working hard in all areas of learning. Leah is always very helpful and caring towards other children in the class. Da iawn ti. |
|  OAK | Victoria – For consistently working so well in all her learning all the time and being a good role model for others. Keep working hard. |
|  ROWAN | Carter- for applying himself particularly well in our maths learning this week. What a superstar! |
|  SYCAMORE | Rian - Excellent participation in every lesson we have done this week. You have challenged yourself in Maths and have been a great digital leader. Keep up the hard work. I am very proud of you. |
|  SPRUCE | William – For writing 2 excellent pieces of work in our topic. He wrote a brilliant letter to Winston Churchill and wrote a great postcard home as an evacuee. William worked extremely hard to write both independently and used a range of skills and presented them really well! |
|  | Alfie Williams- for his excellent Welsh oracy work this week! Bendigedig Alfie! |
