

CLASS TEACHER AWARDS

Seren Y Wythnos – Star of the Week

 WILLOW	Archie - A fantastic week in school! He has listened and followed instructions and showed willingness to help his friends. He has tried his best in all areas of his learning. Da iawn Archie!
 ELM	Isla – you have worked so hard on your writing this week and it is lovely seeing you sound out more words for yourself. I am so proud of you. Keep up your good work Isla!
 HAZEL	Amber – For your lovely writing this week. You did some excellent sounding out to create sentences for your fact file. We are really proud of you Amber, keep up the great work!
 MAPLE	Muhammed Ayaan – for super writing this week. You worked independently to sound out and write sentences all about you. You also tried hard with your handwriting. Bendigedig!
 CHESTNUT	Albie- For trying very hard during PE this week. You have put 100% effort into our circuit training and have been practising this as part of your challenges too! Da iawn– we are proud of you.
 PINE	Ieuan - Working super hard during phonics sessions when visiting year 2. You have settled in extremely well. It is great to see you growing in confidence and beginning to work more independently. Keep it up! Da iawn Ieuan.
 BIRCH	Ronnie –for making some fantastic contributions to our group adjective work this week. He was creative in his thinking and worked hard to write the sentences. Da iawn ti.
 OAK	Mila – For understanding and using descriptive 2A sentences in her learning, very effectively. Keep being creative.
 ROWAN	Melanie – for writing some wonderful, descriptive 2A sentences about a Celtic village in our English learning. Da iawn!
 SYCAMORE	Ramear - for taking care with your presentation, extending your writing, offering many sensible answers in project lessons and challenging yourself in school and at home. What a fantastic week!
 SPRUCE	Oscar Hodge – for making brilliant choices this week. You have worked hard with all your learning, and you have been very focussed and engaged with every task you have done. You’ve made sure every piece of work has been your very best.

YEW

Leon for working very hard in all the written tasks this week. Your handwriting and presentation are improving all the time. Well done.

ASH

Arefeh – for the way in which she has applied herself during mathematics sessions and for the excellent pieces of written work she has produced.

ACER

Poppy - for creating an excellent lot of questions to ask the librarian on our visit to the library today.
